

REV. FATHER EUGENE HENSELL is a Benedictine monk from the Archabbey of Saint Meinrad in Indiana. He was born in 1942 at Logansport, Indiana. He did his undergraduate and seminary education at St. Meinrad, being ordained a priest in 1969. Subsequent to ordination, Father Eugene pursued and obtained an M.A. degree (1971) and a Ph.D. degree (1975) in Biblical Languages and Literature from St. Louis University.

While in St. Louis, in addition to graduate studies, Father Eugene was engaged in parish work, campus ministry, and college teaching. Returning to Saint Meinrad in 1978, Father Eugene continued his teaching of scripture at both St. Meinrad College and St. Meinrad School of Theology. From 1982 until 1996, he was a full-time major administrator in the schools. He served as Vice Rector of the College, and then as President-Rector, of both the College and the School of Theology. Currently, Father Eugene is an Associate Professor of Scripture at St. Meinrad School of Theology, specializing in creating and teaching online graduate biblical courses for St. Meinrad's lay ministry program.

Since 1997, Father Eugene has been engaged in full-time retreat work, conducting biblical retreats and workshops for priests, religious, and laity throughout the country and in several foreign countries. He brings to this work over 45 years of teaching experience, as well as a strong sense of the church's pastoral needs. With his wide contacts among clergy, religious and laity, Father Eugene brings to his work a deep and sympathetic understanding of the challenges facing many facets of life in the contemporary Church.

Father Eugene is an active member of the Catholic Biblical Association, The Society of Biblical Literature, and The American Academy of Religion. He is the past president of The American Benedictine Academy.
