

JOURNEY TO COMMUNITY WHOLENESS

Monday, June 12, 2017, 5:30 – 7:00 p.m.

Venue: St. Andrews UCC, 2608 Browns Lane, Louisville, KY 40220

(St. Andrews United Church of Christ is co-sponsoring this event as part of its Community Forum Spring 2017; other participating organizations include Church of the Ascension and The Guiding Light Islamic Center.)

As we come to the end of this Series of Presentations on Some Aspects of the Three Abrahamic Traditions:

- What are our Thoughts and Feelings about our Journey Together?
- Where do We Want to go from Where We Are Today?
- Keeping in Mind our Goal: Striving to Make Our Beloved Community of Louisville Whole

PROGRAM: Commonalities, Struggles, Values/Ideas, Hopes

Welcome/Explanation of the Purpose of the Series' Final Session.

Professor Riffat Hassan (10 minutes)

Recognizing TSN Presenters:

Professor Greg Hucherson, Dr. Saleem Seyal, Professor Brad Bowman, Rev Diane Snowa, Dr. Walter Snowa, Professor Ed Segal) and Jim Aalen, TSN Media and Communications Administrator who will distribute a short questionnaire to be filled out by members of the audience and answer any questions that may be asked with reference to it. (5 minutes).

Filling Out the Questionnaires (15 minutes) Completed questionnaires will be collected by TSN Team Members.

Rev. C.J. Wright will introduce herself before she moderates the rest of the session. Then she will introduce The Celebration of Cultural Diversity Challenge Video by Mehru Hassan; showing of the video and brief remarks by Mehru Hassan (25 minutes).

Formation of Break-Out Groups. Each group will be led by a TSN Presenter or Team Member and will have a Reporter to record the salient points made during the group conversation. (15 minutes)

Group Conversation: Reporters from each Break-Out Group will share the major points arising in their group and Rev. C.J. Wright will moderated the general discussion that follows and make a Closing Statement. (15 minutes)

Take Home Questionnaire Distributed (5 minutes)

Vote of Thanks on behalf of TSN

Rev. Diane Snowa (5 minutes)

THE SALAAM NETWORK

Striving to make our Beloved Community of Louisville Whole