Muslim Student Voices: Building Understanding in the Community

Thursday, November 10
4:30 – 6:00pm

Metro United Way
330 E. Broadway, 40204
Metro United Way parking lot available

Expand your awareness! Hear reflections from a student panel that represents diverse perspectives, experiences and issues related to Muslim student life in Louisville.

This event was created by Salaam Network as a part of the Student Voices series of Jefferson County Public Schools. Educators are especially welcome to attend!

Panelists include:
Mariam Ba, U of L student and Muslim Student Association president
Hamza Ross Foy, recent U of L graduate, and MSA's former president
Mina Ibrahim, JCTC student and volunteer with refugee students at KRM
Rahaf Alrefai, President of Manual High School's Muslim Youth of Louisville Club
Zaineb Alyasseri, President of Atherton High School's Muslim Student Organization

The panel has been coordinated by Maha Jabbar, student and member of Muslim Student Association, U of L.

Salaam Network is an interfaith group of educators, peacemakers, writers, and supporters from a wide range of backgrounds.
It grew out of a Muslim-led Brainstorming Meeting held at Drepung Gomang Center for Engaging Compassion on May 1, that was attended by a large number of local religious leaders and peace-and-justice activists. Salaam Network is committed to building bridges of understanding and harmony from a knowledge-based foundation.
