

DR. FELICIA NU'MAN is a native of Louisville. She attended and graduated from Eastern High School. She went on to the University of Louisville on a full ride scholarship called the Woodford R. Porter Trustee Scholarship. Felicia was then accepted at Emory University School of Law, a top-ranked law school. She is currently in private practice in the area of Family Law & Divorce, Criminal Law, Employment Law, and Workers' Compensation.