

KEVIN KARL is a mental health therapist and spiritual director in Louisville. He has 18 years of pastoral experience and spiritual direction including four years at St. Meinrad College. He has twenty years of practicing mental health therapy and ten years in private practice, often working with seniors and members of the LGBTQ community.